

Please note that your visa application is processed by the Danish Embassy in London. The Embassy in Dublin therefore cannot provide status updates or answer questions regarding your specific application.

If any documents are marked with NO below, your application for a visa for Denmark is incomplete. Please arrange with VFS to hand in the missing documents within 5 calendar days from today. If the documents have not been received by this deadline, the decision will be based on the information available.

You will be informed when a decision on your visa application has been reached or if further information is needed. Missing documents, declining to provide further documentation or not making yourself available for interview when asked may negatively affect the visa decision.
